AUTHOR OF "HOME, SWEET HOME."-A correspondent of the leading Yorksbire paper. the Leeds Mercury, writing lately from Tuois. says in regard to a visit to the foreign cometery there;

"For the first time since I came to Tunis a great ways of home sickness swept over me. -How far off we-and the silent dead beneath my feet-seemed to be from the land of our birtt! And even as this thought was surging through my heart, my eye fell upon one special grave for which I had been searching. Toere was a plain stone slab, surrounded by a little bed of beliotrope and dwart roses, and it bore an inscription telling bow beneath it by 'Col. John Howard Payne, a citizen of the United States of America, and how this monument had been erected by his grateful fellon-soun-trymen in honor of the author of 'Home, Sweet Home.' Strange, indeed, is the irony of fate. We shape our own destinies in fancy; we plan and plot and labor and contrive, and each one of us for himself has formed his own ideal of the end at which, in due season, in the fullness of this time, he is to arrive, and probably not occe, in the whole history of the human rice. has that end, when it did come, been in haimony wish the visions thus isdulged in. Busucces, of all the strange treaks of malicitus tortune, there has been none stranger, none sadder, than that which sent the man who wrote 'Home, Sweet Home' to die an exile on African soil, and which has left him to a grave here among our English dead at Tunis!" Stone poor Payne cied on the shores of Africe, hun dreds of millionaires have passed away who are now utterly torgotten, as are the writers of handreds of prete tions works in poetry and proso, now not worthy the paper they are w.itten ot; but the impoverished African consu's name remains a household wird whire ever the Euglish languege is speken, for his simple lines had about them that which "makes the whole world kin."—N. Y. Times

Poison for the People. - Committees of experts tell of adulteration in food that is simply sppalling Were the ingredients which are mixed with food innoxious it would still be a very great hardship; but when it is known that the most violent poisons are employed it is a marvel that ithe whole country does not rise up and put a stop to such practices and publish all dealers who sell poisonous aribles of lood. If confirmation of these startling startments were needed one has only to read the faois recent'y brought to light in Chicigo. where it is the pusible to find pure sugar and where not ten par cent, of the milk is good. In that city the bread, without exception, is poisonous; the teas were never impered, but are made of leaves "faced" with Prustin bus and obromate of lead. Seventy-fi e per cent. of the cream of tarrar is white earth, and the coffee is coated with lamp back. But Chicago is no worse than other cities. Baking powders are largely composed of alum. Pickling flaid is di uted with sulphuric soid, alum and verdigris to give it a peculiar flavor. The manufacture of a great deal of our confectionery should be punished as a crime, for much of the candy sold to childnen is simply a lump of white earth made attractive to the eye with arsecical paint and sweetened with glucose. Costly spices are conprerfeited in a teribly groteeque manner. the flavoring being given by the rankest poisons. In these and other adulterations arsenic plays the larges: part. We import annually two million pounds of this deadly poison—one cent's worth of which would kill 2 800 peopleand the buk of this import is used in the proparation of food and clothing -Food and SOMETHING FOR NOTHING .- All newspapers published have had experience with men who want to advertise themselves or their business in newspapers without cost to themselves. It is pitiable to see the shabby means they take to attain the end they have in view. Men, who would feel insulted if they were called dead beats, will with black off; ontery ask the publisher to "plesse mention so and so," (an advettisement) or handing in really an advertisement noder the guise of a communication, they will say, "Here's a little item that will help you to fill up with" Men who do this-and there are some in every town-call themselves honorable and would not think of asking a real estate owner to let them use one of his houses a few months for nothing; nor would they ask him to let them cultivate and use a part of his tarm without expecting to pay rent for it. Thead vertising columns of his paper are to the publisher what the house or farm is to the real cetate owner-his ice me. Why any one should expect a newspaper publisher to be any more generous in equ nierieg his substance than other business men, is something that cannot be accounted for, except on the supposition that some people have an idioric idea that printers ser up type for the love of work, and ype and pri ang cresses are g fis from heav n to sinful men, who publish newspapers merely for the purpose of emoothing the pubway of their I-llew men on the rugged road to for upe, and who have no reward this side the grava. -Texas Siftings.
